To be fascinate

gain money by

I want to thank all my current watching my

videos.

subscribers for

and we can

creating

channels

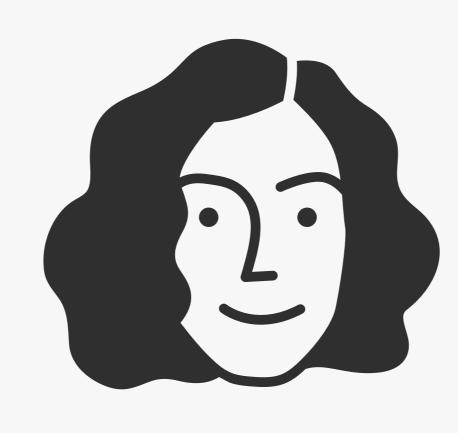

people says they love immersing ourselves in local culture, visiting off the beatenpath attractions.

They love sharing my experience and travel through social media.

This visibility makes it all the more important to pay attention to our project.

we are working for this project to explain importance of youtube channels people thinks

that they gain
knowledge
through youtube
channel

Swathi's room

Short summary of the persona creaters often overlook the channel description people who creates youtube channels, its only the visible on your channels about pae

it is one of the glimpses of users of your

channels

we can build a relationship with their viewers by increasing their engagement people get more benefits through creating channels

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

